This is the first cow I ever bought. She is where it all started! To date she has never let me down. Her heifers are the model of perfection and consistency. Her dam was nearly 70" t2t prior to her death. Her nearly all white color may turn some off, but she has produced ever color. A great momma, she raises her calves to be the monarchs of the pasture, just like her! She has never been cloned nor will she. Due to her age I made the
